Tanja Millner joined PKF hotelexperts group in July 2020 and is based in our Vienna office. As Managing Director of hotel & tourism forum Vienna, Tanja's focus is to further development PKF hotelexperts group's global hospitality investment conferences. She is also responsible for our corporate partnerships.

After graduating from HLF Tourism College in Krems, Austria, Tanja worked for Hilton Hotels in the UK for several years before moving to Bangkok to join an event management company with a focus on corporate events in Asia. Back in Europe, she returned to Hilton to open the Hilton Vienna after a major refurbishment as Austria's largest conference hotel, prior to moving to Hilton Hotels, Munich, to oversee their sales department.

Following five years in the People's Republic of China, where she set up her own event planning company, Tanja settled in Austria to work on consulting projects within the hospitality industry. At the same time, she was responsible for growing the International Hotel Investment & Design Conference into one of the leading annual hotel investment conferences for Central & Eastern Europe.
