Anna Demchenko joined PKF hospitality group in 2024 and is based in Kyiv. In her present capacity as an event coordinator, her work includes coordinating and supporting the organisation of hospitality investment roundtables. She also assists with event planning logistics, communications, and liaising with international partners and speakers.

Prior to joining PKF hospitality group, Anna worked for over three years as an English language teacher. She has also been actively involved in the organisation of educational and awareness-raising initiatives at both national and international levels. Her international experience includes participation in Erasmus+ youth exchanges and a volunteering placement in Kielce, Poland, focused on event management in cooperation with Harcerski. She has attended numerous international conferences, forums, and networking events related to diplomacy, education, and civil society engagement. Anna graduated in 2025 with a Bachelor's degree in International Relations, Public Communications and Regional Studies from Borys Grinchenko Kyiv Metropolitan University. She continues to pursue professional development in project management, event coordination, and communication.
