Sebastian joined PKF hospitality group in 2021, focusing on event management. He lives and works in Vienna and has his focus on all 196+ events.

In his present capacity as Director of Events, his duties range from planning and organization to the implementation of events related to the hospitality sector.

Prior to joining the PKF hospitality group, Sebastian worked for five years for inspiria event service GmbH, an event agency based in Salzburg and Vienna, here he was the project manager and head of the Viennese team. Before that, he was working several years as event manager for various art fairs (viennacontemporary, Art Austria, Art Salzburg) in Austria and had his own little start-up.
